Viticus Group is Expanding to Nashville

Launching New National Veterinary Continuing Education Conference & Training Facility in Music City

LAS VEGAS—Viticus Group, a nonprofit and leading provider of innovative veterinary and human healthcare education worldwide, is thrilled to announce its expansion to Nashville, TN. The expansion signifies a pivotal moment in the organization's nearly 100-year history, adding WVC Nashville, a new veterinary continuing education conference on a national level, and a state-of-the-art hands-on education center in a vibrant and accessible location. WVC Nashville is scheduled for Aug. 16 to 18, 2026 at Music City Center and the new training facility is scheduled to be fully operational in the summer 2026 (subject to change).

"Our expansion to Nashville marks a significant milestone for both the veterinary and human healthcare industries," said Andrea Davis, chief executive officer, Viticus Group. "For nearly a century, we've been at the forefront of hands-on training and education from our home base in Las Vegas. Now, with this new location, we're broadening our reach – creating even more opportunities for professionals to advance their skills, build their confidence and shape the future of their practice. We are here to stay with the Vegas lights and look forward to the Nashville sights!"

With its flagship WVC Annual Conference continuing in Las Vegas, Viticus Group remains dedicated to providing unmatched continuing education while building its second home in Nashville. The new facility will be a cutting-edge bioskills training center designed to provide advanced hands-on education for veterinary and human health professionals. In addition, the upcoming conference, the first new national veterinary continuing education conference in more than 40 years, will introduce an experience that will match the energy and level of continuing education that WVC participants expect, expanding Viticus Group's legacy of delivering premier continuing education and networking opportunities. Specifically, with the concentration of veterinary professionals in the geographic areas near Nashville, the accessible and centrally located city provided a logical choice to create an additional home for Viticus Group.

About Viticus Group

As powerful innovations alter the world of animal and human health, Viticus Group (formerly WVC) is the leading provider of innovative veterinary and human healthcare education worldwide. As the largest freestanding combined animal and human hands-on (bioskills) training and continuing education organization in the world, Viticus Group offers continuing education at two cutting-edge campuses, presenting a variety of courses and providing access to specialized surgical training for both veterinary and human health professionals. Viticus Group's legacy signature event, the WVC Annual Conference, serves as the veterinary profession's premier gathering for innovative education and an opportunity to engage with other industry professionals seeking growth. With its newly announced expansion plans to Nashville, Viticus Group is extending its reach and services across the country for enhanced accessibility and increased options. Bringing together life and medicine in Viticus, we envision a future where all medical professionals have access to year-round, hands-on training for a one-of-a-kind experience.
